Golf Rule 18.2: Ball Lost or Out of Bounds

A ball is lost if not found in three minutes after the player or their caddie begins to search for it. If a ball is found in that time but it is uncertain whether it is the player's ball:

The player must promptly attempt to identify the ball and is allowed a reasonable time to do so, even if that happens after the three-minute search time has ended. This includes a reasonable time to get to the ball if the player is not where the ball is found. If the player does not identify their ball in that reasonable time, the ball is lost.

Golf Rule 5.3a: Starting and Ending the Round

A player's round starts when the player makes a stroke to start their first hole.

The player must start at (and not before) their starting time:

- This means that the player must be ready to play at the starting time and starting point set by the Committee.
- A starting time set by the Committee is treated as an exact time
- If the starting time is delayed for any reason there is no breach of this Rule if the player is present and ready to play when the player's group is able to start.
